Invitation to Apply for the Junior League of Lower Columbia's College Scholarship

Junior League of Lower Columbia is a volunteer group of local women that explore the needs of the Lower Columbia Region and provide assistance in the form of fundraising or service. While our major fundraiser is the annual Festival of Trees, our members have been working year round since the 1940s, to give back to our immediate community via volunteerism, member growth and support, and funds distributed to local nonprofits and scholarships.
